POSITION TITLE:	Years 5 and 6 English Teacher
DATED:	March 2017
REPORTS TO:	Head of Year 5/6 and the Head of Year 5/6 English
Prepared by:	Head of Human Resources

POSITION PURPOSE

To teach English in both years 5 and 6 as part of the 5/6 team of specialist teachers.

Our year 5 and 6 students have dedicated, specialist educators across all subjects. The curriculum covers English, Science, Mathematics, Humanities, Languages, Digital Technology, Physical Education, Art and Music, all taught by specialist teachers and in specialist classrooms.

Our program provides students in years 5 and 6 with a greater challenge, ensuring they remain engaged and excited in their learning and building in them the learning dispositions, confidence and critical thinking skills they will need to embrace their future.

This role commences Monday 19 May 2017 or earlier if possible.

POSITION STATUS

This permanent part time position equates to an FTE (full time equivalent) of 0.74 and currently includes three English classes plus allocated time working with children in extension English. As the timetable works on a 10-day cycle class allocations vary across the 10-days. This role requires attendance each day as the students have English every day.

This role has the potential to become full time.

OVERVIEW

All faculties consist of dedicated teams of professionals who promote individual growth in the academic understanding of their students. They work closely in teams to develop differentiated programs that provide support and extension where needed. A typical lesson will provide inspiration, rigour, and stimulate curiosity and critical thinking. St Leonard's College has a culture of academic excellence which is driven by its motivated staff, and supported by students' involvement in other opportunities to supplement and extend their learning beyond the classroom.

The successful applicant will be passionate about teaching and learning and be able to inspire their students. They will know the current research on best pedagogical practices and be able to work in a team, share resources and ideas, and be able to communicate clearly with students and their parents. They will promote a growth mindset and focus on each student's learning pathway, having strategies to determine their entry level and assess what each student needs to do in order to display growth in the student's learning. They will be competent users of technology to support their organisational and pedagogical practices.

Teachers are expected to undertake supervisory duties which are allocated in a roster either before school, at recess, lunchtime or after school. They are also expected to be involved in cocurricular activities, which may reflect particular skills and interests or as designated by the College. Teachers also undertake pastoral care responsibility. With each of these tasks it is the practice of the College to share the responsibilities as evenly as possible amongst the teaching staff so that there is no unreasonable load on any member of staff.

All teachers are expected to attend staff meetings and other ad hoc meetings as arranged. It is also an expectation that all members of teaching staff attend the College's major functions throughout the year.

OTHER FUNCTIONS & RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of a St Leonard's College teacher include, but are not limited to:

- Preparing and executing well-planned, academically rich and innovative lessons;
- Developing a stimulating learning environment by using a variety of styles and approaches to cater for individual learning needs;
- Employing a variety of effective teaching strategies to effectively implement the curriculum;
- Ensuring that classrooms are places where technology is seamlessly, yet actively, employed to assist in effective learning;
- Reporting on academic achievement to parents via the Continuous Reporting system and make appropriate levels of contact with parents as necessary;
- Developing learning relationships with students that assist in developing the confidence and learning of St Leonard's College students;
- Giving appropriate time to the planning of lessons and collaboration with other teachers as part of teaching teams;
- Actively contributing to a culture of teaching and learning where teachers learn with, and from, each other and actively inquire into effective pedagogical practice;
- Engaging in active and continuous professional learning that is relevant to their area/ subject discipline as well as concerns and debates in the education sphere more generally;
- Being thoroughly versed in the policies of the College and abide by the policy directives;
- Supporting Pastoral staff in ensuring that the expectations of student behavior and dress are met;
- Engaging with students in a variety of activities outside the classroom, including House and co-curricular activities.

GENERAL

All staff are to be supportive of the St Leonard's College Mission Statement and to enhance the school's reputation as one which is a warm and caring environment, characterised by efficiency, professionalism and a willingness to meet the individual needs of those within its community.

It is a condition of employment that all teachers provide a Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) registration before their position will be confirmed.
