Prepared:	May 2019
REPORTS TO:	Head of Learning – Languages
Prepared by:	Head of Human Resources

POSITION PURPOSE

This role is for a dedicated and committed teacher of French, experience in the teaching IB French an advantage.

Languages are a vibrant part of College life at St Leonard's. Held in high regard, the Languages Faculty is now seeking an innovative and skilled educator to join a team of passionate language professionals. Languages form an integral part of the broader school curriculum and the College offers students an opportunity to participate in a diverse range of language activities such as language competitions, languages week and language clubs.

The successful applicant will have a genuine love of languages and delight in the wonderful exploration of concepts in the classroom. As part of a vibrant team the successful applicant will contribute both professionally and collegially to the team. Excellent organisational and interpersonal skills will be important, as well as a commitment to enhance learning in all facets of the Languages curriculum.

POSITION STATUS

This is a contract full-time position, commencing Term 3, Monday 15 July and ending Friday 13 September 2019, covering a staff member on leave. This role includes teaching year 5, year 8, year 9 and year 11 IB French.

Qualification is teaching Spanish an advantage as, if interested, there is a part time teaching role commencing term 4, teaching Spanish and French covering a staff member going on parental leave, will be available.

OVERVIEW OF TEACHING AT THE COLLEGE

All faculties consist of dedicated teams of professionals who promote individual growth in the academic understanding of their students. They work closely in teams to develop differentiated programs that provide support and extension where needed. A typical lesson will provide inspiration, rigour, and stimulate curiosity and critical thinking. St Leonard's College has a culture of academic excellence which is driven by its motivated staff, and supported by students' involvement in other opportunities to supplement and extend their learning beyond the classroom.

The successful applicant will be passionate about teaching and learning and be able to inspire their students. They will know the current research on best pedagogical practices and be able to work in a team, share resources and ideas, and be able to communicate clearly with students and their parents. They will promote a growth mindset and focus on each student's learning pathway, having strategies to determine their entry level and assess what each student needs to do in order to display growth in the student's learning. They will be competent users of technology to support their organisational and pedagogical practices.

Teachers are expected to undertake supervisory duties which are allocated in a roster either before school, at recess, lunchtime or after school. They are also expected to be involved in cocurricular activities, which may reflect particular skills and interests or as designated by the College. Teachers also undertake pastoral care responsibility. With each of these tasks it is the practice of the College to share the responsibilities as evenly as possible amongst the teaching staff so that there is no unreasonable load on any member of staff.

All teachers are expected to attend staff meetings and other ad hoc meetings as arranged. It is also an expectation that all members of teaching staff attend the College's major functions throughout the year.

OTHER FUNCTIONS & RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of a St Leonard's College teacher include, but are not limited to:
